‘We are very excited to bring IDF to Bengaluru for the first time as a part of Bengaluru ByDesign. People in India need to engage more with design - understand it, evaluate it, like it, hate it and adopt it. IDF is an amazing platform for people to engage, listen and converse with the leaders and influencers of the design world. Technology is changing the way we look at design and the design processes, and this year’s IDF will shine a spotlight on the role of technology in design’... Suprita Moorthy, Founder, Bengaluru ByDesign

“IDF is a platform for the design fraternity to come together and discuss the magic of design. Conversations are key to creativity and innovation. IDF is a great opportunity for people to network with the design community, exchange thoughts and ideas, and understand unique perspectives. We invite you all to be a part of this conversation and experience design in a new way”... Priyanka Shah, Co- Founder, Bengaluru ByDesign

This year, Bengaluru ByDesign will focus on demystifying design and making it more accessible to the public through installations, exhibitions, workshops, conferences, events, screenings, pop-ups, talks and more. Three key themes will be explored throughout the Festival: Design & Public, Design & Education and Design & Business to promote public participation, education, innovation, sustainability and creativity via design. The Festival will educate the public and promote sustainable practices through its innovative installations, exhibits, talks and workshops. It aims at fostering leadership in design and creative thinking.

The Festival is in collaboration with TVS, Progress Partner, Asian Paints, Colour Partner and WeWork, Productivity Partner. Titan, Total Environment, Technicolor and Shrishti Institute of Art, Design & Technology have come on board as Design District Partners. The Swissnex India, The Polish Institut New Delhi, Institut français en Inde, The Japan Foundation, Pro Helvetia - Swiss Arts Council, Goethe Institut/Max Mueller Bhavan are the Content Partners and Anant National University, the Education Partner. The Festival is supported by VU Technologies.

About India Design Forum

India Design Forum (IDF) was founded in 2012 by Rajshree Pathy and Aishwarya Pathy as a pioneering initiative to promote innovative design and create an awareness of the power of design in India. As the largest and most influential forum of its kind in the country, IDF spans all disciplines under the purview of design: fashion, furniture, textile, industrial, product and architecture. IDF focuses on the evolution of design in India, its position in the context of global trends, and its engagement with the international design world. IDF was started as an inclusive design conference for dialogue, debate, consensus and action on how design can change and enhance the manufacturing sector in India. It provides an invaluable platform to experts, professionals, established names, and emerging talent to interact with their counterparts from across the world. It fosters design thinking in India and creates an infrastructure that encourages and enables young designers in India.
